Take a good look into the above picture. See that man hanging helpless to the rigging. He, like others, had gone up the mast in the ship, and had been for the dashing, belling billows; but, unfortunately, as has slipped. However, he managed to drop down, and was hanging by his hands, the only means of preserving his life until rescued by some friendly hand. One can hardly imagine such cold-blooded conduct, yet it is too true for this man, who would have been guilty of such meanness and treachery. We reply,

The poor fellow had in the past wronged his shipmate in some way. For months his mate had been plotting to get him first to render him assistance, loans forward, and with an open heart, and a full soul, to do the bidding of evil for evil. In it is the only means of preserving his life until rescued by some friendly hand. One can hardly imagine such cold-blooded conduct, yet it is too true for this man, who would have been guilty of such meanness and treachery. We reply, "yes," and worse too. There are some people who are not only guilty of destroy-

LIVE OF Staff-Capt. John Sharp.

I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son, but I was a blacksmith, and earned my living by the work of the hands of the Lord. I used to stand behind the anvil and said to me, "Go teach the Gospel." I did not understand what you meant, so we went to the cattle market and had liberty. Crowds of people used to come and listen to me talk of the town. The minstrels took it up and opened up one of their jars and said, "Come and hear the man who can make excuses." And one after another began to make excuses, till the minstrels were compelled to close up their jars and leave town.

My parents were strict Presbyterians, and I followed suit. At the age of 16 I was sent away to watch over a great farm which was about six miles from home, and had lost his eye sight.

At 18 I joined a Free Church congregation.

I ministered to them, and used to go away to meetings promising to keep me thinner for the work of the Lord.
